Broad Sheet

Logos Pathos Ethos

Student of the Week!

February 10-16th

Volume I, Issue III

Communication is not just what you do behind a lectern. It can be sung on stage and it can be created with food. Sometimes all three can be done by one person. Josh Suiso, senior, is a renaissance man. His unrestrained personality electrifies rooms. This pop artist has not only been in a major singing competition, but he is releasing a original song this summer. Don't believe me! Check him out at www.youtube/user/joshsuiso Oh did I mention he is creating a cookbook. You know his parties are mind-blowing. We can see why Josh is a comm. major and why his name will be in lights.

SPOTLIGHT IS ON...

Students of Communication 300, American Public Discourse, taught by Dr. Hahn. They are working with the Humboldt Student Food Collective (HumSFC). The HumSFC seek to provide fresh, local, environmentally sustainable, and ethically produced food at affordable prices to the HSU campus and community. The members of the class will be assisting HumSFC with the economicfuel competition, marketing and advertisement, grant writing, and many other projects. This large scale project will enable students to have a positive impact within the school, learn or improve their interpersonal, group, and organizational communication skills, and learn more about food within the American culture.
