

Department of Communication Newsletter

“Ethos, Pathos and Logos”

September 4, 2013

We salute veteran Communication professor Dr. Armeda “Doc” Reitzel for her leadership in the Communication field. Reitzel was the program planner for this year's 2013 National Communication Association conference for the Undergraduate College and University section. She is also the incoming chair and program planner. Not to mention presenting three papers for the 2013 conference.

Dr. Laura Hahn has agreed to become the Ombudsperson for Humboldt State. She joins Dr. Michael Bruner, also communication faculty as Ombudsperson. The Ombudspeople use dialogue and communication to reduce conflict. Across campus, the communication teachers are serving in some of the most crucial positions for a successful university. Thanks to both Dr. Hahn and Dr. Bruner for their service.

Student of the week: Beau Hopkins

Beau Hopkins is an engaged and witty member of the Communication major. Beau is a single parent who uses his communication insights with his family. “My kids are my favorite people to spend time with,” says Hopkins. This native Las Vegan is a classroom leader, an organic intellectual and a pleasure to be around. If you see Beau on campus, be sure to say hello!

COMMUNICATION DEPARTMENT SOCIAL

Join the faculty of the department of Communication for an afternoon social. Free pizza, soda and stimulating dialogue will be available.

Wednesday September 11 from 2-3pm in the Native American Forum (BSS 162).

All majors, minors and friends are welcome!

Department meeting Wednesday 2-3pm Squad room
Contact department chair Maxwell Schnurer
(m565@humboldt.edu)