Congratulations Dr. Tasha Souza

The Fulbright Program, the flagship of the international exchange program, is designed to increase mutual understanding between the people of the United States and other countries. The program is highly competitive and one of the most prestigious awards in the world, operating in 155 countries. Tasha's award project in Barbados will allow her to team with the University of the West Indies faculty, staff, and administration to move forward a vision of education in support of enhanced student learning. She will assist in the creation of faculty development programs as well as teach workshops, seminars, and faculty learning communities to enhance faculty innovation. The project outcome will be an Instructional Development Unit with additional faculty development programs and support to better meet the needs of faculty and students.

Save the Date

On May 4th from 5-8pm the Communication Club will be hosting the End of the Year Potluck Party for all Comm. majors and minors.

On April 13th the Communication Club will be selling snacks and t-shirts at the Intermural Volleyball tournament located at the East Gym.
